nEW iN THE qUILTING wORLD

We thought we would add a twist to this section by telling you which tool the members of the Program Committee could not do without.

Judy: a board for her rulers that her husband made for her

Janice: a light on a board with a glass section (for tracing her appliqué pieces). She also uses a wooden paper presser that her husband made for her.

Linda: an ironing board that Keith made for her measuring 18" by 16" and 1 ½ inch plywood. He even used a keyboard stand with brackets to affix the board to it.

Cathy: She purchased a kitchen island from Home Depot. She uses it with her cutting board and raises the leaf for more space. Of course the extra shelves are for extra storage.

Joan: She treasures a basket that her kids made for her to carry her appliqué.

Roseline: Her display wall that she made out of insulation board from Home Depot. They cut the boards to 6 ft. She then used wide masking tape to butt them together, cover the two boards with batting, then put a wide back fabric on the front. These boards lean against one wall.

President's Corner

Hi everybody,

We hope you have all been doing well.

In November we remember those who served in the various wars allowing us the freedoms we have today. We have been going through a very different lifestyle over the past many months, but I couldn't imagine what it would have been like back then.

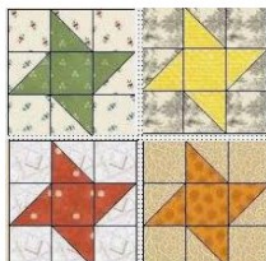

We miss you all,

Thank you all, stay safe, and happy quilting.

Quilt Expo 2022

We are looking forward to 2022, when we aim to continue to promote the art of quilting in our community. In order to get ready, we ask you to start by being part of this project.

When we finally come out of this pandemic, we want to show people that quilting helped us physically, mentally and socially.

Why not use this isolation period to make quilts for our exhibit and to use your creativity to sew up projects to be sold in Quiltique? These are just two of many activities in our Quilt Expo 2022. We will inform you of this project during the coming months and how we will proceed, keeping in mind the many restrictions before us. Stay tuned as we are enthusiastically starting the process of organising our Quilt Expo 2022.

BHQG SEWcial

November 2020 - SEWcial

We are happy to report that the October SEWcial at the St. George United Church was a tremendous success. The 10 participants brought their sewing machines and worked on their own personal projects, enjoying each other's company while maintaining social distancing and following strict protocol for health safety.

Unless things change, we will hold another SEWcial on Thursday, November 12 at the church from 10am to 4pm. We will prepare spaces for 10 members to participate. If you have never come to SEWcial in the past, why not give it a try. Our "regular" attendees are always anxious to sign up but their names will be put on a waiting list until Wednesday, November 4 to allow "new" participants to join in the fun.

Please inform Sue Baldauf at suebaldauf@hotmail.com of your desire to join us. She will be happy to hear from both "regular" and "new" participants. Closer to the date, the 12 participants will receive details of the day.

'THINKING OF YOU' cards

If

you know of a Guild member who is in need of a card for illness, sympathy or 'thinking of you', please let Stephanie know.

How To Find Calm In This Difficult Time!

Instead of fighting it why not adopt a positive outlook in order to find peace. I have spoken with many of you and one similar action taken is to do something for others. Example: make a special Christmas gift out of Xmas fabric to give to someone, try a different pattern and make a charity quilt, write down favorite recipes for your grandchild at Christmas, phone a guild member to have a chat etc.

Please remember to make MUG RUGS for outreach. We need 110. Any theme any colour.
Size 6" x 8" to 7" x 9".

MUG RUG CHALLENGE

Deadline: November 14th

Every year in November, we ask our members to make mug rugs for people in the community who receive prepared meals in their homes. For many, these are the only gifts they get at Christmas.

This year, Outreach is hoping to receive 110 mug rugs. Can you help out? Approximate dimension: 7" X 9", bigger than a coaster but smaller than a placemat.

- ◆ For each mug rug that you make, you will get a ballot for four surprise draws.
- ◆ You may drop off at Rica's home.
- ◆ An alternative drop off point will be announced in the November newsletter.

Strut your Stuff

Have you been working on a project this month? Send Aline a photo of your flimsy or your quilted project before the 20th of each month so that the photo can be included in the next month newsletter. I know that I get inspired when I see other people's work. We are counting on you!

Sift together flour, baking soda, cream of tartar and salt. Set aside.

In bowl of mixer, beat butter until creamy. Add icing sugar gradually, beating all the time. Continue beating til light and fluffy. Add egg and vanilla and beat a little more. Stir in dry ingredients. Chill dough about 1/2 an hour then roll out on floured surface about 1/4 " thick. Cut out with a round 3" cookie cutter (you can use a smaller one if you prefer). Candy/Gift Baskets

Let's get ready for Christmas.

Make a candy dish/basket for family and friends.

(compliments of Heart'n Home Creations)

	Small Basket 5" long x 2"wide x 2 1/2"tall	Large Basket 6" long x 4"wide x 4"tall
Outside	cut 1 - 7" x 9 1/2" if directional fabric - cut 2 - 5" x 7" cut 2 - 1 1/2" x 5" handles	cut 1 - 8" x 11 1/2" if directional fabric - cut 2 - 6" x 8" cut 2 - 1 1/2" x 5" handles
Lining	as above excluding the handles	as above excluding the handles
Interfacing	as above excluding the handles	as above excluding the handles

 labels are optional - use muslin scraps*

Instructions: stitch all seams with 1/4" seam allowance.

1. Press the interfacing to the wrong sides of the outside fabric.

If your piece was cut 7" x 9 1/2", fold the piece in half right sides together to measure 7" across and 4 1/2" high. Stitch down each 4 1/2" side.

If your fabric was directional, place the two pieces right side together.

Stitch along each side and across the bottom.

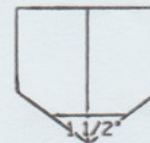

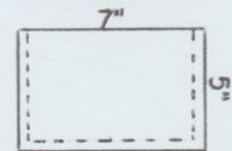

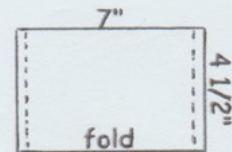

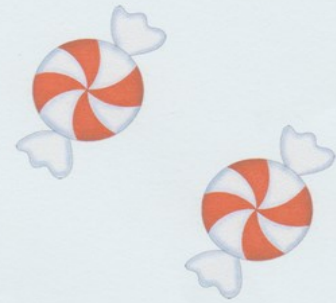

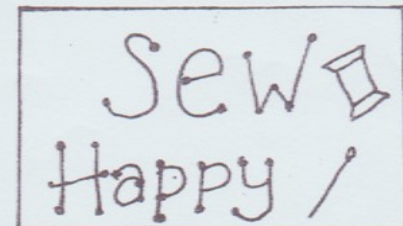

Repeat for the lining pieces.

2. Stitch the corners to form the bottom: Fold each stitched basket in half lining up the side and bottom seam or center of the bottom. Measure 1 1/2" from the corner, draw a line and stitch on the line. Trim the excess to leave 1/4" seam allowance. Repeat for each corner of the outside and lining of the baskets.

3. Fold each handle in half to measure 3/4" x 5". Turn right side out and press. Position on the right side of the basket, turn the ends under and stitch a small square on the end of each handle to attach it to the basket.

4. Place the outside and lining baskets right sides together. Stitch around the top edge of the basket leaving a 2" opening. Turn right side out and press. Topstitch around the top of the basket.

Follow the same directions for the large basket but substitute the larger pieces.

QUILTS OF VALOUR

Elizabeth presented one of our quilts to a Veteran two weekends ago, in time for Thanksgiving.

The quilt was donated by the outreach committee Quilts of Valour.

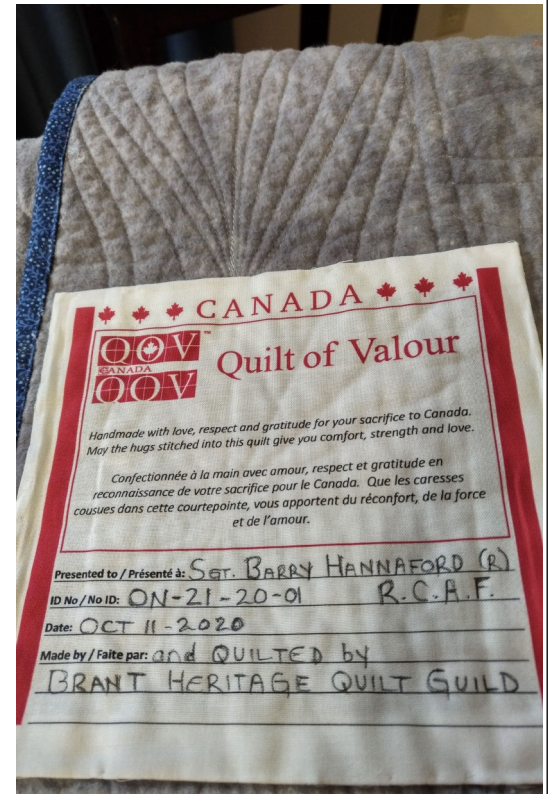

The Veteran, Barry Hannaford, served for over 25 years in the RC Air Force. He was a load master and also flew many missions abroad. He served several UN missions and flew dignitaries around the world, including past PM's.

He was nominated by his son, who is currently serving and received a Quilt of Valour when he returned from one of his tours in Afghanistan.

Thank You to the guild for providing a wonderful quilt and your generous support. Barry was very surprised to receive it and loved the colours and design.

WHY WE CELEBRATE REMEMBRANCE DAY

Remembrance Day is a memorial day observed by Canadians and other members of the Commonwealth since the end of the First World War in order to remember all those who fought and died in the line of duty to keep us free. Every year on November 11, Canadians pause in a moment of silence to honour and remember more than 2 million Canadians who have served, and continue to serve, Canada during times of war, conflict, and peace. If we do not remember, their sacrifice is meaningless.

Remembrance Day was first observed in 1919 throughout the British Commonwealth and was originally called Armistice Day to commemorate the armistice agreement that ended the First World War on Monday, November 11, 1918, at 11:00 am. Until 1930, Armistice Day was held on the Monday of the week in which November 11 fell. In 1931 a bill was introduced to observe Armistice Day only on November 11, and to change its name to Remembrance Day. The first Remembrance Day was observed on November 11, 1931.

Every November 11th, the official Canadian national ceremonies are held at the National War Memorial in Ottawa according to a strict protocol with the Governor General presiding over the ceremony. A service is held and armed services representatives lay wreaths. Church services are held across Canada, which often include the playing of "The Last Post", a reading of "In Flanders Fields" by John McCrae, and two minutes of silence at 11:00.

Strut your Stuff

(SHOW AND TELL) Featuring Janice Furgason

Janice says, "Like many of us, all of my usual weekly activities came to a grinding halt this Spring with one exception.....my quilting. I am so grateful to have discovered this wonderful pastime as it fills my days and keeps my mind active. There is always a new BOM or project to look forward to tackling or perhaps finishing a UFO that's been niggling at me to complete. I am currently participating in two BOM's; Aline's APQ (allpeoplequilt.com) BOM currently in its second month and the Let's Be Friends Sew Along 2020. Other projects are The LoneStar, which was a project the Marvellous Monday Quilters tackled at Ancaster Town Hall and another fun project has been my Beach Walk Quilt, which will be perfect for the cottage! "

The best part about quilting for me has been the opportunity it has brought for me to meet some really remarkable women and to make some lovely friendships. Best of all though is that quilting has given me a new shared interest between myself and my two sisters, Joan and Faye!
