Next General meeting September 8, in person
St George United Church
7 PM. Doors open at 6:30 PM.

Masks are encouraged but no longer required and proof of vaccination has been paused.

We have members or family members who are immune compromised. Out of consideration, we encourage everyone to keep a safe social distance.

◆ SEPTEMBER 8

Welcome fellow quilters to the start of our 2022-2023 season. Your Program Committee has been hard at work finding speakers and activities that are surely going to motivate you to refine your quilting skills. We start off with our first trunk show speaker: Dorothy Balsdon.
She is no stranger to us as she is a member of the BHQG, a workshop instructor and a skillful quilter.

Many of you may remember her outstanding submission to our Quilt Expo 2018: Jazzy Jackety, in the clothing category. Tonight, you will be able to observe her fine work from the stage and up front. You will not want to miss this!

Tonight's Demo by Cathy Eagles, 6:45 PM

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Hi everyone!

Welcome back to the new normal with personal attendance at meetings and work shops and a return to the social networking that is such a significant part of our guild.

As your new president, I would like to point out that I am in the role of facilitator and that the real work of the guild is done by your executive members and committee chairs. They make the president look good!

We do need a leader for our Outreach program with a dedicated group willing and able to continue to support the mandate. If you are interested in a role in Program, we could use help with that group as well.

Please continue to provide your input and feedback so that our guild will continue to grow and evolve.

Happy Autumn!

Joanne

President

SEWCIAL

September is here and your guild is very busy indeed. Because of all the demands of the BHQG QUILT EXPO at the end of the month, there will be NO September Sewcial.

In October, make plans to attend our Sewcial at the church during the day of our guild meeting. Stay tuned for more information in the October newsletter.

Stay safe. Happy Quilting.

HOW TO MAKE A HANGING SLEEVE FOR A SMALL QUILT

Another method of hanging a small quilt or adding a dowel along the bottom of a larger quilt to help it hang straighter and flat to the wall is by adding triangles to each corner on the back of the quilt.

This method is very quick and requires no hand sewing which is a bonus for those of you who do not like to hand sew.

1. Cut triangles an appropriate size for your quilt. This piece width is 10 ½" x 28" I chose to cut the squares 3 ½". Cut 4.
2. Fold each square from one corner to the opposite to create a triangle. Wrong sides of fabric together. Press well with a steam iron as they should be nice and flat.
3. Place in each corner of the back of the quilt and pin.
4. Sew in place with an ⅛" seam.
5. Sew on the binding.
6. The triangles are now ready to have a piece of dowel or bar of some sort attached.

Sharon Hamilton worked on this display at St Paul's Library in Brantford. You, too, can be a star by volunteering to help with Quilt Expo 2022.

Quiltique

Quiltique hopes to be full of hundreds of sewn and quilted items created by you, our members and for sale to visitors of our show.

You can choose to donate items with all proceeds going to the guild – or sell your items and reap the profit (-10% paid to the guild).

2018 Expo saw over 700 items in our Quiltique and the total profit earned by members for the guild was $2185. Awesome!

At the September 8 meeting, I will have the tags and pins you need to attach to your items. If you email me with the exact number you need, I will have them packaged for you, saving time for distribution. There will be extras available. If you will not be at the meeting tags and pins can be picked up at my home. 56 Beverly St., West, St. George.

Quiltique registration forms can be found in the newsletters over the past few months and there will be copies at the meeting. The completed form can be submitted at the September 8th meeting or when you bring your items to the venue on September 29. Please do not bring your Quiltique items to the September 8 meeting.

Yes, everyone is busy finishing those final projects, but don't forget a little item or two for the Quiltique.

Thank-you so much for your participation.

It's Not Too Late... To Lend A Helping Hand!

Quilt Expo Volunteers Needed

It has been said that many hands make light work . . . many hands will also help ensure our upcoming Once Upon a Quilt Expo 2022 is a great success!

We are counting on our BHQG members to “lend a hand” and volunteer to fulfill one of the many volunteer positions available. This is your chance to work behind the scenes and learn first-hand what makes our ‘Once Upon a Quilt’ Expo one of the most popular quilt shows in our area.

We have several volunteer opportunities and we are sure there will be a role that appeals to you! Whether you like to be front, line and centre or work behind the scenes, we can find the perfect position for you!

Benefits of Volunteering

*Free Admission to the show

*Entry in an exclusive volunteer draw and a chance to win a complete Quilt Kit!

Here is an opportunity to make new friends, have some fun, join the excitement, and contribute a few hours of your time to celebrate our Guild and our shared love of Quilting!

How Do I Sign Up?

Please come over to say hello at the Volunteer Table at our September Guild Meeting. I will be there to answer your questions and talk about positions you may be interested in.

In the meantime, you can drop me a line or give me a call to talk about the many exciting volunteer opportunities we have and how you can help and “lend a hand” to make this year’s quilt expo the best ever!!

NOMINATIONS FOR EXECUTIVE 2022-23

Our Executive will be seeing some changes, as people step down from positions of responsibility. We want to thank everyone for their hard work and dedication in making our guild such a strong force.

This year's call for new volunteers to join our BHQG Executive has been very rewarding. Thanks to all of you. You will find that working behind the scenes in our guild offers its own rewards of staying connected and being involved.

- ◆ Maybe, consider joining a committee such as Spring Retreat, Library or Program
- ◆ As we come closer to our world returning back to normal after 2 years of Covid restrictions, we look forward to meeting face to face again, at the church, each month, for regular guild meetings. The Executive meetings will continue to meet on ZOOM.

If you feel you have an interest in any of these positions, or want to voice your interest in more participation in general, please contact:

Sue Baldauf, Nominations

suebaldauf@hotmail.com

Or call Sue at 519 755 8743, for more information.

The Executive and all the committees are always looking for new volunteers to share the fun.

Workshop 1- Is it an X or a Plus? taught by Susan Clarke

This workshop is a good exercise in colour values, bringing the X's forward, and then into the background along with the plus signs. It's not hard at all and very achievable.

Susan's class will be held in the Hall downstairs at Five Oaks. Size limit of 20 will allow participants to have lots of personal space with a full worktable each

Workshop 2 - Roundabout Quilt designed by Donna Jordan, taught by Sue Baldauf

This workshop will show you how to use straight line triangles to give the illusion of curves and circles. Using a variety of light scraps against a variety of dark scraps, makes this pattern an effective scrap buster project.

Sue B's class will be held in the Hall upstairs at Five Oaks. Size limit of 15 will allow participants to have lots of personal space with a full worktable each.
