SEPTEMBER PROGRAM

We are at the start of the 2018-2019 season with a diverse program that will surely please everyone's palate.

To kick off our year, we welcome Bonnie Wilson from Old Schoolhouse Machine Quilting in Woodstock, Ontario. Through her humour and interesting stories, Bonnie will bring to you an array of quilts that she has fabricated over the years. Her interest in detail is one aspect that shines through her work. She specializes in edge-to-edge quilting as she finds this to be fun, stimulating and interesting while producing stunning results. This fascinating program is not to be missed!

Roseline Dufour, Program Chair

DEMO

Come meet Linda Bodkin in the kitchen from 6:45 to 7:00 PM for our first Demo of the year.

Her topic will be: 'Chain stitch your blocks into a "net" for quicker assembly'.

ACQUILT GO CUTTING MACHINE AVAILABLE

At SEWcial

There will be an Accuquilt Go machine for members' use, during SEWcial.

If you wish a certain cutting die to use, let us know and if we have it, we will let you know and bring it to SEWcial.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Welcome back to all our past BHQG members and a special welcome to our new members.

As we reflect on the summer of 2018, the tragic loss of a dear friend, Carla Rutherford, is clearly in our minds. She will be remembered always for her smile, her kindness, generosity and selfless sharing of her awesome quilting talents.

This summer, we have seen record breaking heatwaves and heard of raging forest fires. We are bothered by ridiculous international news and behaviours. But our world of quilting gives us a world of strong friendships, a sense of stability and activities that give us solace.

We have an exciting year ahead of us, starting with our upcoming Quilt Expo 2018 in October. Aline needs all your registrations now, but you still have time to finish your quilts. Enjoy your part in making this show a success.
