

Grand Stampers November 2022

VOLUME 22 NUMBER 11

Saturday, November 12, 2022.

The following participants were able to attend this past Saturday's meeting: Kris Kerfont, Lynne McCutcheon, Pat Freeman, Clare Price, Margaret Catania, Elvira Lester, Audrey Derii, Sandra Hahn, Dede Reiach, Pat Ottaway-Bryan, Elaine Smith and Lilo Breid.

Audrey started the meeting by mentioning negative feedback due to the lack of a video last month. Ours, being a private club should be about fellowship and sharing ideas. It's not nice to just watch the video and perhaps pass it on to friends etc.

Elaine made the point that videos served their purpose during Covid. Of course, some people have no choice but watch the video due to being house bound or too far to travel.

A lot of work falls onto Aline Chans shoulders having to do so many preparations, which she does faithfully.

One more grievance was mentioned by Audrey. It's almost always the same people who do the demos. And if no one comes forward to do them she is jumping in last minute, which is not fair.

For upcoming months we will need ideas and people to help out with demos.

One possibility was discussed again - perhaps not to meet in person in January and February.

Kris Kerfont will organize the Card Exchange program at the December meeting. If you don't want to be included, please let Kris know.

Dede, our door prize arranger reported that she received another four stamp sets from Aline Chan. Thank You, Aline, that is so generous and helpful. Next month there will be another $ 25.00 Cash prize made available. And not to forget - Jutta Picard donated this beautiful holographic paper for door prizes. Thank You, Jutta.

Door prizes were drawn and won by : Elvira, Lynne, Sandra, Kris, Audrey and Lilo.

Show'n Tells were presented and it was decided that we do 'Winter Cards' in December, same format as at this November meeting.

Last, but not least - Clare Price played Santa to the delight of everyone at the meeting by gifting us with so many beautiful stamping supplies!" What a treasure! Thank you Clare!

So many Shown'Tell cards were presented, it was a pleasure to look at them all.

And our Thanks to the ladies who made cards for nursing homes. They are so appreciated.
