Re: Door Prizes, managed by Dede.

December 7, 2021 Dede e-transferred to Ellen $ 128.00 in prize money.

Pat Ottaway-Bryan donated $ 10.00 Cash

4 Oxide inks were donated by Aline.

Ticket Sales total of	$ 22.00
Total Receipts	$ 32.00
August door prize winner Etta recvd.	$ 25.00
Balance	$ 7.00

Elvira in Dede's absence drew today's door prize. She picked her own name and was able to choose one of the oxide inks. Congrats. We are still making Christmas Cards for nursing homes and would really appreciate it if you could help out. Once you have them done, they could be delivered to either Kris Kerfont (Fisherville), Ellen Anscombe (Blackheath), Dede Reiach(Caledonia) or Lilo Breid (Port Dover). I would be happy to pick them up as well. Just send me an email.

The question about membership fees was raised. Ellen confirms that the insurance fee has not changed at all. Therefore, based on approximately 35 members a yearly fee of $ 40.00 (no change from before) was proposed by Kris Kerfont, seconded by Etta Cryer and accepted by all attendees. This fee will have to be paid whether attending in person or watching the videos, starting now and not later than October 31st, 2022. It can be e-transferred to Ellen Anscombe using this email address: grandstampers@gmail.com . Another way to pay could be by cheque or cash to Ellen at the next meeting.

An Ad inviting people to join our club will be put into 'What's Up Caledonia' .

Re: Card Exchange program, managed by Kris Kerfont will be decided in December.

Aline Chan, again brought her super-duper equipment enabling people to view a demonstration by Etta as well as one by Aline herself. Aline showed us how to construct this adorable box which can be utilized for all kinds of events.
