A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Good Day Ladies

Once again a month has passed and I am still admiring the beautiful vista that Mother Nature has prepared for us. This month is one of Remembrance also. At this time, we remember all those men and women who unselfishly have given their life so that we could continue living in a free and safe country.

The Management Team continues to meet every month to plan our General Meetings. In this direction, we have set up a transition committee to do some leg work on in-person meetings. In order to have input from the membership, there will be a survey sent out to get your opinion on getting together at the Portuguese Club.

Also this month, you should be receiving the membership list. Barb Camilleri, Anne Cher and Helen Baker have been diligently working to update it. Thank you, ladies. Also, welcome to our five new inductees. Moraig Waite and her team have been planning a very cheerful, toe tapping, full of merriment Christmas event. Further details will be presented in the December Newsletter.

Enjoy the cooler days in anticipation of a few flurries in the coming month. Till we meet again on Wednesday, November 10th, lest we forget.

Stay safe, stay healthy.

Yvonne Yersh

PROBIAN REFLECTIONS

Sustainability seems to be a key concept and buzz word in today's culture. We, at the Women's Probus Club of Cambridge Riverside, are no different, believing financial sustainability to be of the utmost value. It keeps our foundation safe and helps us continue our future growth. We have been fortunate to have Suzanne Cline as Treasurer for the past year and a half. Her financial background and attention to detail has steered us through the tough times of the pandemic with a sound financial footing. Thank you, Suzanne, for keeping us stable and on track.

NOVEMBER'S GUEST SPEAKER

NATALINA BOMBINO CAMPAGNOLO

Natalina Bombino Campagnolo is a wife, mother of four and the Founder of Natalina's Kitchen, Italian Cooking School, which operated from her rural property from 2011 through to 2021.

She is the child of Southern Italian immigrants and lived in Northern Italy as an adult for three years, and still travels to Italy frequently.

Although the physical cooking school is now closed, she continues to inspire, educate and delight home cooks with her vibrant Italian food culture through her first cookbook, Natalina's Kitchen: Bringing Home-made Back!, her domestic and international food & wine experiences, her online cooking school and YouTube channel.

Natalina is currently working on her second cookbook! A trusted and credible source of cooking tips, techniques and recipes, Natalina embraces and encourages the elements of the "Italian Mamma lifestyle" – family, food, passion and love—successfully blending it with the 21st century approach of a hip, multi-tasking, female entrepreneur.
