Audrey Derii started the meeting with the Show'n Tell portion. Sandra Hahn showed us a pretty 25th anniversary Slim Line card using Holographic paper. And a baby card for Alice Petheram who happened to be a Grand Stampers member a few years ago.

Elaine Smith showed some wonderful cards – really inspiring.

Dede Reiach proceeded to share a card with Ice cream cones and a really gorgeous Fall card.

Future meetings: We have NO projects for October .

We need someone to share and/or show us a project of some kind for our next Zoom meeting in October. If you have an idea , please contact Audrey Derii and Aline Chan re: Zoom demonstration.

Any requests / Ideas for next month or future months???

Then there was another discussion about membership fees. At the moment we are still not paying a membership fee.

Ellen Anscombe reports an amount of $ 441.99 in the Grand Stampers account. The Masonic Lodge is holding our spot.

For us to be able to join a meeting there, members should be fully vaccinated (2x) for Covid. Another point to consider: the insurance might go up because of the Pandemic.

One point of consideration could be letting new members join Zoom for $ 20.00 (1/2 of our annual fee).

Dede opined that it would be a great way to get new people to take an interest in our club by letting them watch our Zoom meetings, without having to pay right away. Some people could be valuable additions.

Once back at the Lodge there should be a fee.

Audrey can't see us going back to the Lodge before next Spring.

At the moment Aline Chan is still OK with conducting the demos on Zoom since she has all the equipment (Camera etc) to do so.

The Show and Tell portion works out great this way.

These are all kinds of different consideration that will have to be dealt with eventually.

The FUN part of our meeting was a Pop Up Card by Etta Cryer, demonstrated by Aline Chan. Very original . Thanks to both of you.
