Audrey Derii started the meeting with the Show'n Tell portion. Lots of wonderful ideas. See pictures below – after the Business section. We have a new member. Welcome Karen Johnston. She happens to be Sandra Hahn's sister and at one time used to belong to the Grand Stampers.

Sandra mentioned that she spoke with Jane Campbell who hasn't been well this past month. We all wish her a speedy recovery. Let's send her a card. Jane Campbell, 4201 7th Line North, Coldwater, ON L0K 1E0 All the Best Jane.

The Masonic Lodge has contacted Ellen, our treasurer to let us know that they have rented out the facility for every Saturday in November. After some discussion it was decided that we are not going back until April. Elaine Smith was wondering whether they would give away our spot unless we indicate that we will be coming back in April of 2022. Ellen also mentioned that right now we would have to provide proof of vaccination and would have to wear a mask the whole time inside. With any luck we might be mask less by April. This issue will be revisited in February when we can make a firmer decision then. There will be no tag exchange this year.

The December meeting will bring us a Demo by Aline Chan and another one by Dede Reiach. Both ladies were kind enough to volunteer. Thank You.

Aline demonstrated a 5" x 7" pinwheel tower card suggested by Etta Cryer and a card using foil card stock, one of Karen Johnston's ideas. Both projects were super. So much fun. I spent most of the afternoon on my pinwheel tower card and am really happy with it. Thank You Ladies. Another fruitful meeting!

For fun: Aline wants us to wear a Christmas hat at the next meeting.

Dede worked on this while Aline demonstrated

An elegant Sympathy card by Judith Bell

Pat Ottaway-Bryan's Show n'Tell cards. Each one came with a story attached.

Dede's creations. Each nicer than the next one.

Karen Johnston sent me an email: Here is the pinwheel card I made after watching Aline demonstrating the method on Saturday, I have a friend who is celebrating her birthday this week and wanted something special so I made this card for her.

And it turned out really nice.

And here is the Minecraft card Audrey made for her grandson. Sooo good!

Coasters done by Audrey using napkins. A great present for a lucky person.

Happy Stamping and see you in December.
