

Grand Stampers November 2023 Newsletter

VOLUME 23, NUMBER 11

This past Saturday, November 21, 2023 we met at Grace United in Caledonia.

Audrey Derii welcomed everyone. As always, she asked for Show'n Tell cards. Marg and Susan showed their creations. Susan kindly offered to demo her card at a future meeting, which will be great.

The December meeting will feature either potluck or Goodies, still to be decided. Pat and Ellen will show us how to create 'Junk Journals' in December. Apparently it is a handmade book of recycled and found materials. You can either write, draw or paint thoughts, ideas. They are asking us to collect and bring various items to the meeting. The purpose of the junk journal is to record memories, make use of keepsakes, perhaps even include pictures.

For January and February we will need ideas. Are there any requests for a certain demo etc.or....Volunteers to do a Demo???

Dede broached an idea about having an informal Get-together via ZOOM on a Saturday other than the regular meeting time of the month. That is --- if Aline Chan is able to accommodate us in terms of time. At the moment she is extremely busy. Her husband had an operation. We are sending our best wishes for a speedy recovery. Dede will contact her. By the way, these ZOOM meetings would take place in January and February, tentatively -- that is.

Ellen donated a score and cutting device to the Club. Thank You, Ellen. Great idea.

The door prize consisting of $ 25.00 was won by Bev McMurrich. CONGRATULATIONS!

Susan demonstrated two different Fun Folds. She was very organized and the cards turned out beautiful. Thank you, Susan.

Here are some of Susan's cards created this morning:
